MARKET COMMENTS

Double eagles are still the fastest rising of United States series. Our opinion voiced several months ago that uncirculated specimens would bring $100 in the near future now appears conservative. Any common date uncirculated specimen brings $70 now and just a few months ago they could have been bought for $50. Eagles, while not rising quite as rapidly as the double eagles, show marked increases from month to month with uncirculated specimens now bringing $33.50 for the common dates. By constant checking we find that the 1909 double eagle is seldom offered and we believe it is a "sleeper." Just try to find one.

Rolls prior to 1940 continue in strong demand in addition to the 1942-S cents and 1942-D nickels. The 1943-S cents have started up and demand still exceeds supply. 1932-D-S quarters uncirculated have disappeared off the market and the 1936-D has developed into the third scarcest of the set. The 1937-S is fourth followed by the 1934. Interest in the Washington quarters seems to be greater than that for any other silver or minor series. The Jefferson nickels is second and the Buffalo nickels is third.

Proof gold is in strong demand and supplies are negligible. About the only time a decent selection comes up at auction today is when an outstanding collection is offered. We believe proof gold will show marked rises during the next few years. When proof gold prices are compared to minor proof prices, the former appear ridiculously cheap, especially with the small quantities of gold proofs struck.

Some of the new collectors are bidding $3.95, $4.95, $7.95, etc., while the more experienced bidders usually bid $4.10, $5.10, $8.10, etc. and generally buy the lots for just a few cents over the more inexperienced bidders. After almost every sale we receive letters stating that the collector wished he'd bid the extra 50c or $1 that the lot sold for.

Since the Roosevelt dime was issued there has been increased interest in all the dime series with emphasis on the Mercury and Liberty Head. Even the Liberty Seated have started to rise, although many are still very cheap compared to the later coins. For the short time investment we recommend Mercury and for the long pull, Liberty Seated.

Commemorative gold seems to be in the midst of a rise with prices advancing from month to month. Most of the ones in our recent sales were bought by dealers. In fact, close to 50 per cent of the coins sold in our last few auctions have gone to dealers. Upon checking closer we find the major portion of the coins bought by the dealers were coins selling from $10 to $200 each. Evidently the demand must be strong and supplies small of the scarce and medium rare coins. Such coins as the 1871, 1875, 1877, 1878 and 1885 proof nickels, 1864 and 1873 silver three cents, proof cents prior to 1880, and proof silver dollars seem to be most in demand.

Here's a tip for the conservative collector, buy currency. It is reasonable in price and the engravings can't be beat. Prices can't remain low very much longer.
